

INTERROGATORIES

TO BE ANSWERED CATEGORICALLY UNDER OATH, IN WRITING ____ DAYS FROM SERVICE.

1. Are you indebted to the defendant herein in a sum sufficient to satisfy the full amount of judgment of said writ?
2. Is the defendant herein in your employ? If yes, state his or her wages, how many hours worked per week, how they are paid, and if there is any money due the defendant for services rendered, not exempt from seizure by law. (See La. R.S. 13:3881 - General Exemptions for Seizure.)
3. Have you in your hands, on deposit, or under your control, and exempt by law from seizures, any money, rights, credits, property, or effects of any description belonging to the defendant herein? If yes, state what it consists of and how much it totals.
4. Have you since service of these interrogatories, paid or transferred to the defendant herein, money, property, credits, or effects of any description whatsoever or ordered the same to be done, or had any transaction whatsoever with the defendant? If yes, state of what it consisted?
5. State whether or not there are any other judgments or garnishments affecting such wages, salary, or commission? If yes, state the status thereof.
6. At the time of service of garnishment or presently (if the defendant is not presently in your employ), state the name and address of the defendant's new employer, if known.
7. Do you understand that, pursuant to La. R.S. 13:3923, if the defendant leaves your employ but subsequently returns to work for you within 180 days, then you are to resume making deductions?
8. Do you understand that, pursuant to La. CCP art. 2411, any seizure of wages and/or commissions of defendant hereunder is effective upon your receipt of the petition, citation, and interrogatories, and that you are to begin withholding the non-exempt portion of said wages and/or commissions from the date of service upon you of these interrogatories? (See LSA-R.S. 13:3881 for non-exempt portion.)
9. Do you understand that you are to continue deducting the wages of defendant until you receive written motion that the judgment of plaintiff has been satisfied in full?

I certify that the above answers are true and correct.
